

The Girl on the Train

Read-alikes

Deer Park Public Library
44 Lake Avenue
Deer Park, NY 11729
(631) 586-3000
www.deerparklibrary.org

Defending Jacob by William Landay

Jacob, the only child of an assistant district attorney in a small New England town, is accused of the murder of his junior high classmate. His father fights to prove his innocence but is blindsided by mounting evidence against him

The Dinner by Herman Koch

A dinner with two brothers and their wives takes on a more sinister tone as it turns out their sons may have been involved in an unforgivable crime.

A Small Indiscretion by Jan Ellison

The life of a happily married wife and mother of three slowly starts to unravel when she receives a photograph in the mail one day that reopens a past that she has worked hard to forget.

So Much Pretty by Cara Hoffman

The body of a missing young woman is found five months later, and while the pieces of the mystery are being woven together by a reporter and a bright young student, a second murder takes place.

The Vanishers by Heidi Julavits

A promising young psychic suffers an attack from her jealous mentor, but it does not diminish her gifts, and she is recruited to help search for a missing person who may have a connection to her mother.

The Weight of Blood by Laura McHugh

Set in an Ozark Mountain town, a sixteen year old has found an important clue that might answer questions about her missing mother, and that may also be linked to the recent murder of her friend. No one is talking and her own family may be complicit.

Dear Daughter by Elizabeth Little

After being released from prison on a technicality, Janie Jenkins tracks down the one lead she has on her mother's real killer and is startled by what she uncovers about her mother's past in a small South Dakota town.

Elizabeth is Missing by Emma Healey

When Maud, an aging grandmother who is slowly losing her memory, is convinced that her best friend Elizabeth is missing and in terrible danger, she becomes obsessed with saving her beloved friend despite the fact that no one believes her.

The Good Girl by Mary Kubica

This thrilling novel uses a shifting viewpoints writing style that is similar to The Girl on the Train and tells the story of a girl who is kidnapped. Mia, the daughter of a Chicago judge is abducted, but her kidnapper decides to go against the plan...you won't believe the twists and turns ahead.

The Pocket Wife by Susan Crawford

When her neighbor, Celia, is brutally murdered, Dana Catrell—who, the last person to see Celia alive, suffers from a debilitating mania, the byproduct of her bipolar disorder—must clear her name before she descends into madness.

Precious Thing by Colette McBeth

Astonished to discover that a police press conference assignment is about her best friend from high school, television journalist Rachel endeavors to learn the fate of her missing friend before making a discovery that brings everything they once shared into question.

Turn of Mind by Alice LaPlante

Implicated in the murder of her best friend, Jennifer White, a brilliant retired surgeon with dementia, struggles with fractured memories of their complex relationship and wonders if she actually committed the crime.

Under Your Skin by Sabine Durrant

Discovering the body of a young woman near her house, attractive and successful Gaby Mortimer finds her charmed and secure life falling apart as she struggles to follow an investigating detective's orders to trust nobody.