A message to our community,

Summer is the season for fun, excitement, and perhaps experimentation. Your library is a spot for all that — a place of both old favorites & new avenues to explore. Join (again, or perhaps for the first time) a summer reading club — we have them for all ages. Come listen to a LIVE concert on the library's main floor! Look for us (giving out free books and other goodies) at Geiger Spray Park (date to be announced). Read this newsletter with an open mind and consider learning about something you never thought of before.

And congratulations to librarian Ruby Marchetti, now Head of our Young Adult Department — look for inspired and exciting changes in that corner of the library. Have any suggestions, (teens)? We are, she is, willing to listen and consider.

We also welcome librarians Catherine Montazem to Adult Services, and Emily Zarcone to Children's Services.

Make the most of yourself, your library, and your summer. Safely.
