

Report to the Community

Arrangements are underway to replace aging structural elements including the HVAC system and the roof. The Board of Trustees has begun working on plans to expand the building and to modernize the library to provide additional spaces for programs.

Board of Trustees
January 25, 2023